Review of Trade.

New York, July 29.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Trade is still quiet as a whole, more so, indeed, in some lines than was the case last week, and quieter even than ordinarily at this midsummer period. While conservatism still governs future operations by wholesalers and jobbers, and retail or final distribution is still disappointing, there are, however, some movements which indicate a more optimistic outlook in leading basic lines.

Chief of these probably is the sharp upturn following a heavy break in the securities markets and recessions in grain prices following recent advances, tending to point to better than recently indicated weather and grain crop conditions.

conditions.

Among the industries, features are the rather better reports as to demand for finished iron and steel, copmand for finished iron and steel, cop-per and some makes of cotton goods, based apparently on the advance in raw material and in raw wool. Pig iron remains steady and quiet, and prices are still easy. In the East curtailment and short time are still marked in many leading lines, notably cottons, woolens, leath-

Look Who's Back With Us!

Percy is back—let the gods rejoice—from his two weeks' stay by the sad sen waves, with a dark sun-burn and a long-lost voice and a big black mark against his "behaves." He has filted—thoughts of a lovely blond—he has dired and wined—let Luculius monn—last think of the bunches of maideus fond he has left on the bench sad and alone. Yes, Percy is back and his tales are long of the hearts he broke and the things be did; we know that his voice always led the song when the lights burned bright o'er the litted iid. And new that he's back and we see his state and the same old form with the sunb-nose phis—this thought, of course, come with his prate—we wonder how he could make things whize. But we know he did, for he said as much, and he shows us cards he has "received from lovely hlonds, soubrettes, and such, and Percy has never deceived. Yes, Percy is back—let the gods rejoice—from his two weeks' stay by the sad sea waves, with a dark sun-burn and a long-lost voice and a hig black mark 'guinst his "behaves." World's Visibile Supply.
